

Professional Services

Intengo offers consulting and training services to ensure sustainable efficiency and effectiveness in your sourcing and procurement processes.

Discover opportunities with our consultants

Using e-Procurement and e-Sourcing solutions is just the tip of iceberg for cost-cutting. Our consultant team will help you to discover further opportunities by decreasing maverick spending, increasing economies of scale, streamlining processes and supplier relationship management.

Train your organization to triumph

Organizations with strong learning capabilities stay around. In order to ensure sustainable cost-cutting, Intengo offers training for your procurement teams. Rather than seeking consultants, let your organization train reflexive muscles on procurement and sourcing related matters.

Procurement outsourcing

Specialization is a must in today's competitive environment - we are specialized in procurement, sourcing and creating value by minimizing your costs - let us handle your sourcing and procurement. We can give you the chance of focusing on your core business and ramping up your profits again.

Centralizing Procurement for conglomerates

Organizations with multiple functions, with activities within various industries usually lack centralized procurement processes. Intengo can help you for streamlining these processes again and that would impact your bottom-line profitability directly.

“Intengo and e-Sourcing system helped us to gain remarkable profit with Telekom Arena's fixed seats.”
